Yet Taken.

Developments Have Tended

to Clear Them.

yet to be heard from and subpoenas will be issued in order that they may be brought here by May 14, when the committee reassembles to resume consideration of the mat-

Officers Change Opinions.

been following the proceedings very closely,

of the officers of the accused colored shooting, which was located not only by let holes in houses and injury done to citizens by the firing.

In addition to that evidence, which alone had a powerful effect upon their minds, Mayer Combes, in whom they had the utmost confidence because of their acquaint-ance with him and because he had served in the army as a surgeon and had developed conspicuous executive ability in handling unruly elements in Brownsville, believed that the shooting was done by diers while the shooting was going on.

that the guilty men were in his command of the entire body of men, 20 per cent at

He believed that by that heroic method the men would be brought to their senses and that the silent ones would give evi-

Opinion Influenced President.

in force, a change of their opinions com-menced. This is according to the testinony of every one of the officers who came before the committee. When they saw the old colored veterans, some of whom had change their opinions as to their guilt. Then the Purdy investigation threw a great deal of light upon the subject, and finally the carefully studied by these officers, who had had no opportunity to make any investigation in the town because they were con-

the evidence laid before the Senate com-

Experts Report.

Another important matter that has a bearing on this subject is the report of Lieut. Hawkins and Mr. Spooner of the Springfield arsenal on the shells found in the streets of Brownsville on the morning following the shooting. These shells were traced to four rifles that were in the pos-session of Company B, and when that evidence was brought out it was regarded as almost conclusive evidence of guilt of the garded it from the wording of his commu-nication sent to the committee transmitting rason and the quartermaster sergeant of his company is uniform to the effect that they went to the storehouse on the night of the 13th, after the shooting, and there found in an arms chest with the lid screwed down, and resting under a pile of iron cots.

one of the rifles which, the experts de-clared, had fired some of the empty shells. There has been no evidence to change the fact that that rifle was there and could not have been secured for the purpose of shooting up the town.

be perfectly correct in their determination

the report. But the evidence of Lieut. Law

Secretary of War evidently so reand are waiting for further light.

their minds that they are guilty ose court-martial proceedings brought additional evidence, all of which was service for over a quarter of dence on their guilty comrades.

Penrose was so thoroughly convinced e, the discharges to be a month apart.

evidence of witnesses, but also by bul-

OFFICERS

pected to find them.

WHAT RECENT

No. 16,995.

Surplus Ammunition.

Important Evidence of Citizens Not companies of the 26th Regiment which may have been accessible to people in Brownsville. There was more evidence to show that the people of Brownsville may have secured ammunition from the 26th infantry than that the colored soldiers of the 25th had surplus ammunition to fire that night. Another suspicious circumstance is the fact that shells and clips found at dawn on the morning of the 14th by the commanding officer of Company B were in a position that they could not have been had they been fired from the spot and thrown, as is usual in firing, and the finding of five clips at one spot also tended to show that they had been placed there and had not been thrown in the act of firing.

Tests made at Fort Macintosh to determine the distance at which colored soldlers mine the distance at which colored soldlers. CHANGE OPINIONS Since Discharge of Colored Soldiers Now that the investigation of the Brownsville affray has been brought to a temporary halt members of the committee and others are reviewing the testimony

Tests made at Fort Maciatosh to determine the distance at which colored soldiers could be recognized and their clothing described on a night similar to that of August Lo, and under circumstances practically the same, have surprised a good many people, because, according to those tests, it would not have been possible for citizens of Brownsville to have identified the colored soldiers as they have undertaken to do. Those tests are not conclusive at all, but they point to a line of facts relating to testimony that has been given by citizens of taken up to this time with a view to seeing where the case stands. That Senator Foraker has scored some extremely important victories is admitted by many close observers of the proceedings, and those who have sought to fix the shooting up of the town upon the shoulders of the colored soldiers have met some unexpected obstacles at moments when they least extimony that has been given by citizens of Brownsville that will be important in de-The investigation of the Brownsville affray is probably but half concluded, and unlike most cases in which there are accused persons, the testimony thus far presented has been by the defense, aithough members of the committee all around the board are prompt in denying that there are any accused persons or that there is a prosecution and defense or even a "case" at all. The witnesses have been called by Senator Foraker, and have included the colored soldiers and their officers and a few others. The citizens of Brownsville are yet to be heard from and subpoenas will be shooting and that they knew nothing about

SENATOR'S ESCAPE

ter. After they have been heard it is likely that the committee will proceed to Brownsville in order to take a view of the scene of the shooting-up afray before making its It the minds of many people who have perhaps the most important development of the investigation lies in the change of cpin-United States Senator Montana was crossing a river twenty miles battalion. These officers, many of whom are West Point graduates, and some of west of Trinidad yesterday his carriage whom have had extended careers in the broke through the ice and was upset. The army with both white and colored troops, believed from evidence submitted to them senator was plunged into the stream and was rescued by other members of the party early on the morning of August 14, follow-ing the shooting up of the town, that col-ored soldiers were guisty of that crime. They formed their belief upon the finding of shells of the kind that were used in their as he was being washed under the ice. Mr. Clark is confined to his bed in his private car today in the care of a physician. He has a severe cold, but no serious results new Springfield rifles scattered about the streets in the vicinity of the scene of the

His Clothing Frozen.

The senator was hurriedly taken to a ranch five miles away, and when he arrived there his clothing had frozen. After being furnished with dry clothing the party proceeded to Weston, eight miles distant, where the senator's private car was waiting. The senator, who is accompanied by his wife and daughter, will resume his trip the colored soldiers, and he presented to them statements of a dozen people in Brownsville to the effect that they had recognized the marauders as colored solbappened.

CHARLES W. STRINE DEAD.

Operation for Appendicitis.

The opinions of these officers were adopted days ago.

by Gen. Garlington, Gen. Bell, Gen. Lovdelphia, entered newspaper work when a ering, Gen. McCaskey and others, who in young man. Later he became identified with concert and theatrical enterprises. turn influenced the President in the issuing of his order dismissing the entire battalion He had been with the Metropolitan Opera Company for the past two years as manwithout honor; but from the time the officers of Companies B, C and D of the 25th Infantry witnessed the severe methods for smoking out the guilty men put ager of tours. Mr. Strine was forty years of age.

Ten Workmen Killed.

a century without the least stain upon their records, accept their discharges without honor, without being able to save themselves by giving information, they began to terly opposing a resumption of work.

CHICAGO, April 6 .- Booker T. Washing-fined within the limits of the barracks grounds until ordered to Fort . eno, where "People frequently ask me why I don't move out of the south," he said. "It will do this with but faint hope of success, the battallon was discharged.

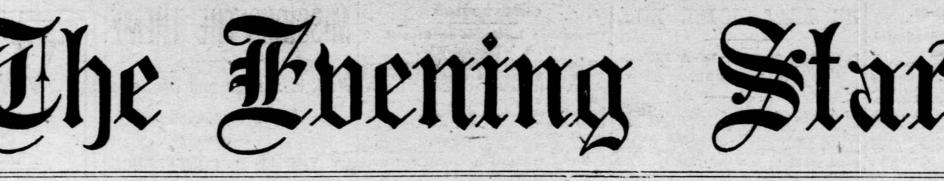

While the men were not on trial in the might seem to some that one could educate court-martial proceedings, a great deal of evidence was brought out there bearing on himself and enrich himself to that point where he would desire to tear himself away case, with the result that it brought from the negro race, but as long as I live the officers very close to the idea that the men were not guilty. Since then some of home will be down there among the black men of the south.' Above all, Mr. Washington encouraged the idea of industry. He urged that every military affairs has confirmed them in that belief, until today every one of them is either convinced that the colored seldiers are innocent or they have at least

Two Men Burned.

SAUGUS, Mass., April 6 .- Two men were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the H. B. Newhall tide mill early today. The dead men are Oscar Mills and Michael Desmond, both of Malden. The bodies were found near a chimney, where the men were in the habit of sleeping. The tide mill was used by S. W. Gould Sons Drug Company, and was the last of the tide mills along the Saugus river. The finished the preparation of his speech. He loss is $25,000.

Princess' Engagement Denied. LONDON, April 6.-Maj. James E. B. Martin, controller and treasurer of the household of Prince Christian, father of Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, today authorized a denial of the report circulated by the Daily Mirror of this city of the engagement of the princess to the Grand Duke Michael of Russia, which the major declared to be "absolutely with-

An explanation of how the experts may of the rifles from which the bullets were fired is had from the fact that a large box of empty shells that had been fired from noon to R. L. these rifles at target practice at Fort Nio-brara were taken to Fort Brown in a box, title this year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1907-TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES.

the lid of which was broken open in transit, and was then left or four or five days of the rear porch of B barracks, where it was accessible to children and others visiting

EVIDENCE SHOWS

The shells were not especially valuable, but were to be returned to the arsenal in exchange for additional ammunition, there being no penalty should the company fail to return them. For that reason, and because of the fact that it was not supposed any one would take them, they were not more carefully guarded.

It is still a question to be determined whether it was those shells that were scattered in Brownsville. If the experts' report identifying these shells with certain guns is accepted as true the theory that the shells were fired at Fort Niobrara before the battalion went to Fort Brown will be very strong, unless come further, evidence can be brought forward to show that that particular gun was at some time out of the arms chest.

Surplus Ammunition.

If the report of the experts should be set aside as untrustworthy, which does not appear to be likely, it has been shown that there was a large quantity of ammunition of the Springfield riffes left at Fort Brown by companies of the 26th Regiment which may termining the case.

The soldiers have stoutly maintained are expected.

to Los Angeles this afternoon. Senator Clark was on a tour of inspection of his coal properties when the accident that he recommended the gradual discharge Succumbed at Boston Hospital After BOSTON, April 6.-Charles W. Strine, manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, died today at the Boothby Hospital in this city. Mr. Strine was operated upon for appendicitis eight

Mr. Strine, who was a native of Phila-

LODZ, Russian Poland, April 6 .- Ten workmen were shot and killed by strikers in the factory district here today because they attempted to resume work. The managers of the factories have begun to re-engage men, but the socialists are bit-

Washington Will Stay South. ton addressed 3,000 colored people last night at the Olivet Baptist Church. man see that his son learn a trade and that the young be instructed to save their Champion Tennis Player Married. LONDON, April 6 .- Miss D. K. Douglass, champion lawn tennis (singles) player, was married at Ealing this after- is resumed Dr. Hamilton will be still on the noon to R. L. Chambers. It is expected stand and the question before us is whether that the champion will not defend the it is wise or not to continue his examina-

It is Said.

TO CALL MORE WITNESSES

Likely That One or Two Will Be Called to Stand.

JEROME MAY MAKE PROTEST

Both Sides Are Ready for the Final Effort in the Remarkable

Case.

NEW YORK, April 6 .- Now that District. Attorney Jerome has decided that he will not apply to the appellate division of the supreme court for a writ of prohibition rellunacy as to Harry K. Thaw's sanity, it is almost certain the trial of this remarkable ease will duly proceed to its end. There will be no more interruptions, it is said, and by Monday morning, when the proceedings are resumed, both sides will have prepared said that counsel for the defense may call one and perhaps two or three witnesses to the stand on Monday morning. Who these witnesses will be could not be learned. It is presumed that Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton will be one, but should this presumption be accurate it is not anticipated that he will be questioned at any great length.

The other witnesses will be minor ones, and what they will be called upon to do will be simply to correct certain discrepancies in the testimony of previous witnesses. As soon as the last one of them has left the witness chair Delphin M. Delmas will announce. "The defense rests," and the last phase of the trial will be entered upon, Mr. Jerome having announced that he will call no more witnesses at all.

May Make Protest.

It is almost certain, however, that, to justify his position, Mr. Jerome will make a brief protest against the confirmation of the report of the lunacy commission. He however, for it is believed to be a foregone conclusion that Justice Fitzgerald will confirm the commission's report.

So far as known, no prosecuting officer in this jurisdiction has ever found himself in the curious position that District Attorney Jerome occupies. Despite his own deep-rooted belief that Thaw is irresponsible and a paranoiac, Mr. Jerome will be compelled to impress upon the jury that it is its duty to find the young man guilty of deliberate murder.

of deliberate murder Since he has said that he will strive to Since he has said that he will strive to convict Thaw, the district attorney will be forced to ignore all that he has said in court and out of it as to the prisoner's mental breakdown, and to argue simply that he went up to Stanford White on the Madison Square Roof Garden that tragic June night and shot him to death through motives of revence and jealousy.

Delmas' Speech Finished. As to the defense, Delphin M. Delmas has had abundant time for this work, because Mr. Hartridge has done an the work connected with the relations of the defense toward the lunacy commission.

All of Thaw's lawyers profess to look forward to next week with the utmost confidence. Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, since the menace of weary weeks of waiting involved menace of weary weeks of waiting involved in Mr. Jerome's threat to seek the appellate division has vanished, is cheerful again, as is the prisoner. She visits Thaw in the Tombs daily and spends as long a time there

Dr. Hamilton's Testimony. One of Thaw's counsel said today:

"When the trial was interrupted Dr. Hamilton was on the stand and his examination was not completed. When the case it is wise or not to continue his examina-twenty-five years in the navy, Capt. Peary As the flames spread the vessel drifted wands, has been purchased for the Sa tion. I favor asking Dr. Hamilton his has been absent on leave for fifteen years. away from the shore, and, fanned by a Francisco-Puget Sound lumber trade.

CLARK OF MONTANA NEARLY LOSES HIS LIFE.

THAN TRIAL TO GO ON
LOSES HIS LIFE.

THAN TRIAL TO GO ON
Shooting, we think, and that will help our case. What his opinion is in regard to Thaw's mental condition now does not matter in view of the commission's report, We will get together before Monday and thresh the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter of the shooting. We will get together before Monday and thresh the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion. Nothing has yet been decided get in the matter out and arrive at some conclusion.

D. M. Delmas was busy today putting the fir'shing touches to his summing-up speech and it was said at his office that he will take more than a day to deliver it. It was said that he will be the only member of Thaw's counsel that will address the court in the summing up.

TWENTY-FIVE ARE DEAD

MCRE THAN FIFTY ALSO IN-JURED IN TORNADO.

Fassenger Describes His Experience on the Mississippi River During Terrific Etorm.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6 .- Fully twenty-five persons dead and more than twice that number seriously injured are results of yesterday's tornado which swept through Louisiana, Mississippi and Alaative to the report of the commission in bama. Less than half of those killed were white persons. Among the last bodies found were those of a man and a woman in trees at Alexandria, La. The experience of being caught by the tornado in the middle of the Mississippi themselves fully for the final effort. It is river on a stern-wheel packet is described ably be raised. by Louis Knopp, who was aboard the steamer Betsy Ann.

"The smokestack and stage plank were blown away in a jiffy," said Mr. Knopp, "and the boat began tossing from side to side like a cradle. I'm a pretty strong time that it was all I could do to keep the company's main office here, says that hold on the railing of the boat. At the not a passenger or any member of the stroyed to a large extent. Business must be dormant for the time being. Communication must be interrupted. The people and broken glass. The pilot turned the boat's bow toward the bank and managed to drive her nose into the levee, but by this time the upper works of the steamer were barely able to stand alone."

PAYS PARTING CALL.

The German Ambassador w Visit His

Home in Saxony. Baron Sternburg, the German ambassador, called at the State Department today and said good-bye to Secretary Root and other officials before departing for Germany on a short visit to his old home in Saxony. He expects to sail from New York April 9 on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse II, accompanied by Baroness Sternburg, returning to this city about the 1st of July.

The negotiations for a new agreement to continue in force the present minimum rates for duty on United States imports into Germany have progressed so far as to warrant the statement that the finishing touches can be added in Berlin, probably during the ambassador's stay there, and certainly before the expiration, in June, of the existing German decree on

WANTS TO TRY AGAIN.

Arctic Explorer Peary Applies for Extension of Larve.

Civil Engineer R. E. Peary, U. S. N., has applied for an extension of leave of absence for two years in order to resume his efforts to reach the north pole. Commander Peary has succeeded in raising $200,000, necessary for the expedition, which he believes will be his last invasion which he believes will be his last invasion of the Arctic regions. He plans to start the expedition the latter part of June, and will use his specially-constructed ship, the Roosevelt. The dash to the pole will be attempted in the summer of 1908. Out of the pole will be attempted in the summer of 1908.

Very Probably.

NOT A PASSENGER HURT

Remarkable Escapes of All the Sixty-Five Travelers.

HOT RACE AGAINST THE FLAMES

All on Board Praise the Coolness and Courage of the Captain of the Boat.

Special Dispatch to The Star. NEW YORK, April 6.- The hull of the burned steamboat City of Troy, which caught fire near Tarrytown last night and which was run to Edwin Gould's dock at Ardsley, where the passengers were safely landed, sank off Dobb's Ferry early this morning, but a representative of the Troy line said today that the wreck will prob-

The trip that ended so disastrously was the third made by the City of Troy this season, which opened on April 1. The company's representative said that another boat would at once be put on to take the place of the burned vessel. The report of man, but the wind was so terrific at one | the captain of the burned vessel, made at same time, I was dodging flying timbers crew was injured. How the fire started has are thrown into unrest. not yet been determined.

The City of Troy's sixty-five passengers were rescued in safety before the vessel was burned to the water's edge alongside Mr. Gould's private dock at 8 o'clock last night. Thirteen horses in the hold and all The women passengers were safely freight on board were destroyed. One womlanded on the levee with the aid of a an, who had slept through the first excitement, was rescued from her state room by Fred Smith and Robert Wilson of Dobbs Ferry. First Mate W. S. Edgar of Troy was overcome by smoke and was taken to the office of the Manila brewery, where he was revived soon. To the coolness of Capt. Charles H. Bruder and the excellent discipline of the crew, with the fact that many of the passengers kept cool when the fire was discovered, is attributed the rescue of

The First Intimation.

Smoke issuing from the companionway shortly after the City of Troy left Yonkers was the first intimation of the fire. Defective insulation in the pantry, which is on the main deck amidships, is supposed to have caused the blaze. As soon as Capt. Bruder realized that his vessel was on fire the alarm was sounded and those passengers who had retired were aroused.

There were only about a dozen women aboard, and while there was a tendency among them toward panic at first, the coolness of the crew and the reassurances of Captain Bruder calmed the excited ones.

As the flames gained headway full speed was put on the boat headed toward the nearest pier on the New York side, at Dobbs Ferry. For some reason the boat could not be made fast at this point and a dash was made for the Gould pier near the Ardsley Club. Here a crowd had collected, and without confusion the passengers were bundled ashere, Captain Bruder being the last to leave. An hour later the City of Troy was a blackened hulk of ruins. The Gould dock was badly dam-aged by fire.

Vessel Drifted Away.

brisk breeze, was soon a mast of flames from stem to stern. Efforts to save the horses on board were in vain. The fire department of Dobbs Ferry made an unsuccessful attempt to get a line of hose on board. It was at this point that it became known that there was a woman on board. Then Smith and Wilson boarded the burning vessel and handed her dow to a rowivat.

Huddled in frightened groups on the shore, a number of them scantily dressed and without their baggage, the passengers were taken to the railroad station at Dobbs Ferry and supplied with transportation. Many of them returned to New York last night, while others continued to like the state of the state o night, while others continued their journey to Troy by rail.

TWO CENTS.

to Troy by rail.

Seven passengers of the burned steamboat who arrived at the Grand Central station at 11:30 o'clock last night had nothing but praise for the coolness and courage of Capt. Bruder. The passengers reported that a number of them had retired, while others were in the saloon, when the captain entered and warned all to remain calm until the steamboat could be tlocked. A number of Italians, in their excitment, attempted to jump overboard, but were prevented by one of the officers, who persuaded them to remain quiet by a show of force.

Investigation Begins.

Michael Murray and Thomas O'Hara o the crew, as well as the negro cooks and stewards, were among those who returned to this city last night. All of them had lost the principal part of their clothing and were hatless and wrapped in blankets.

Representatives of the Citizens' line went to Dobbs Ferry this morning to begin an investigation into the burning of the steamboat. The United States steamboat inspection service will begin its inquiry immediately. At the offices of the Citizens' line this morning it was said that the cargo on board the vessel consisted mainly of dry goods and perishable freight. The boat was insured. vas insured. Capt. Bruder is a veteran river captain and lives on a farm up the Hudson.

The City of Troy was a sister boat of the Saratoga, and was built in Brooklyn in 1876. Thirteen years ago she was rebuilt and completely medernized. She was rebuilt and completely medernized. She was valued at $200,000. Her gross tonnage was 1,527, her length 280 feet and breadth thirty-six feet. The crew numbered forty-eight men, and she had 200 state rooms. She plied between this city and Troy and made her home port at Albany.

Man and Wife Found Dead.

NEW YORK, April 6.-Patrick Cavanaugh and his wife Bridget were found dead tellect, told all inquirers that he didn't in a Brooklyn lodging house today. The room was filled with gas which had escaped from a tube which had become disconnected eat, and the company of good and brilfrom a gas heater, presumably by accident, The couple had planned to leave today for the Adirondacks, where they had obtained employment on the William Rockefeller estate. Cavanaugh was forty years old. His wife was thirty-five.

HOPING TO END THE WAR

ability of an Early Cessation of Hostilities.

An important conference too.; place at the State Department today between Assistant Secretary Bacon, Ambassador Creel of Mexico and Ministers Calvo of Costa Rica, Mejia of Salvador and Toledo Herrarte of Guatemala. It is believed it was for the purpose of canvassing the prospects for reaching an agreement along the lines suggester by President Cabrera of Guatemala, providing for a guarantee by the United as the delegate from New Mexico.

States for the faithful execution of a peace He became known to political fame by pact in Central America.

At the close of the conference, which lasted three hours, it was stated by one of the participants that substantial progress was being made toward reaching ar agreement that would insure the maintenance of peace in Central America. A conclusion, however, he said, has not yet been reached and it would be impossible to discuss publicly the details of the exchanges that are taking place. Minister Mejia's View.

The war between Honduras and Nicaragua, according to Minister Mejia, will be settled without embroiling other Central American republics. "It is highly to the out the least trouble. interests of the republics of Salvador, Costa Rica and Guafemala," said Senor Mejia, that peace should be brought about as soon as possible in order to awert chance that the war may be extended into their respective domains. To that end the representatives of these countries here will do all they can. Meanwhile those countries have found it expedient to mobilize troops on their respective frontiers. When I left home Salvador had about 2,500 men on the border, though it would be possible to in-crease that number to 25,000.

"Even though Salvador, Costa Rica and Guatemala are not directly engaged in the war, they necessarily suffer as long as the war continues. Their commerce is de-

Tired of War and Its Cost.

"The conservative people in Central America are tired of these wars, which have continued for half a century. They believe that if all the money that has been spent for slaughter and the satisfaction of the selfish ambitions of some individuals during that time had been turned to the building of good roads, schools and other instrumentalities of civilization Central America would probably comprise one united, prosperous and happy nation today. Those means of communication that have been established already have brought the peoples of the countries into closer relations, but the time has not yet come when it would be possible to amalganate them into one confederacy, either by force or convention, because the nation would again break up as a result of the insufficient means of putting down numerous insurrections. But within ten years the time may come when such a plan would be entirely feasible."

THE RUSSIAN FAMINE.

Scurvy Making Great Strides-Transfer of Relief Fund.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6 .- Scurvy is making great strides in the famine districts. The official reports for the second fortnight of March show 1,055 cases in Ufa province and 717 in Saratov, compared with 438 cases in Ufa, the first fortnight of March and 356 in Saratov province during the same period. There has been a slight decrease in the spread of typhus.

The project to transfer the famine relief from the government to the zemstvos has been approved by the cabinet and will be submitted to parliament.

Steamer Bound on Long Voyage.

SUPERIOR, Wis., April 6.-Capt. J. H.

Ewart of San Francisco has arrived here Ewart of San Francisco has arrived here to take out the steamer Winnebago bound for San Francisco, the entire trip being over 15,000 miles. The Winnebago will probably take on a eargo of carbolite at Detroit. 'he longest stretch of voyage without stop will be from Port Sydney to Coronel, Chile, The ship, together with the Lucy Neff of Milwaukee and Minnie E. Kelton of Tonawands, has been purchased for the San

CHASE OF THRILLS

IN WHITE HOUSE

But Expectation Was Not Followed by Realization.

OF FAMED DINERS

Senators Bourne and Hansbrough Among Those Present.

PENROSE AND "BULL" ANDREWS

One of the Warm Friends of the Pennsylvania Cassius Slips in Without Noise.

Thrills chased each other around the White House this morning. Was there to be another chapter of the famous $5,000,000 conspiracy? Expectation was not followed by realization, and the day vore along without anything more than a glimpse of two of the men who are said to have participated in the dinner at which Senator Penrose is alleged to have talked so freely about the "anti-Roosevelt conspiraty."

The President was visited by Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon and Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, two of the men who are said to have been present at the dinner where the tall and fat Cassius of Pennsylvania drew his knife before Caesar was ready to be butchered. Hansbrough, amiable, pleasant, keen of inhave a thing to say. He wanted to attend more dinners. He liked good things to liant men.

It would not behoove him, even if he were the custodian of linner secrets, to reveal them. He must decline to deny or admit that he knew anything of this memorable feast, at which the specters of Harriman, Hearst and Rockefeller entered with fists full of gold and greenbacks and made feast.

Hearst and Rockefeller entered with fists full of gold and greenbacks and made faces at the man in the White House.

Bourne, short and slight of figure, having less meat on his bones than "Gum Shoe" Bill Stone of Missouri or Crane of Massachusetts, stayed a long time with the President. He, too, couldn't talk. In fact, he hardly knew what the word "dinner" meant. He couldn't even remember that he had ever been to a dinner, and he was certain that he had not talked with the President today about anything more im-President today about anything more important than some patronage in his state. There was nothing about his face, though, to indicate that he still had visions of the H. H. R. apparition. Whatever shock he got ow that occasion he has fived down by strong will power and by devoted at-tention to the affairs of his constituents.

"Bull" Andrews Makes No Noise. Before these entries upon the White House stage there silently slid in one of the close friends of the Pennsylvania Cassius-"Bull" Andrews. He is known the country over. "Bull" got out with the same noiseless tread and limited vocabulary with which he entered. He was at the White House twice yesterday. In the Congressional Directory Mr. Andrews is described his close association with the late Senator Quay of Pennsylvania. According to Pennsylvania political history, Quay always turned over to Andrews the carrying out of all business he was himself too busy to handle or about which he had doubt. He knew Andrews and knew him well. In time Andrews came to be republican state chair-man of Pennsylvania. They have said some mean things about him since the reform wave swept over the state, but, like Quay, he is impervious to either good or bad that may be said of him. He shuffles along without a pair of skates, and if he wore skates he would avoid an asphalt pavement. There are those who believe that he could within ten feet of a canvas-back duck with-

Does He Represent Penrose?

Does Andrews represent Penrose in these White House calls? He is the brother of Wesley R. Andrews, at present state chairman of the republican party of Pennsylvania. W. R. Andrews is in Washington, but has not been seen at the White House. The fact that Penrose is accused of having been a party to a $5,000,000 conspiracy would not hurt him with the Pennsylvania machine, but it would cause him trouble among Roosevelt supporters in Pennsylvania. There-fore the Pennsylvania republicans must be made to feel that there has been some mistake. If Penrose is really innocent, as he claims, would it not be appropriate for the White House people to give him a clean bill of health? As Andrews would not talk, and as the usual sources of information about the "conspiracy" were silent nothing could be learned as to whether "Buli" Andrews is seeking to have the White House issue a statement that Senator Penrose is a much-wronged man. Will the White House do it?

SHIP'S DESPERATE STRUGGLE.

Steamer Reached New York After Sixty-Hour Storm Experience. NEW YORK, April 6.-With seven of her

erew more or less injured and the others utterly exhausted, the steamer Virginia arrived here today from Kingston, Jamaica, after a desperate struggle with a storm of sixty hours' duration off Hatteras. The Virginia ran into the storm last Tuesday and from that time until Thursday it was a con-stant battle with the sea. The wind reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour and rain fell in torrents. At one time six water-spouts were sighted from the steamer's bridge. An immense wave which struck the ship about six hours after she had run into the storm ripped off the tarpaulins that had been hastily battened down over the hatch openings, which had been left without the heavy covers so as to give venti-lation to the large cargo of bananas in the Virginia's hold.

Virginia's hold.

Galleys, cabin and scuppers were flooded four feet deep, the rush of water battering the stewards, extinguishing the galley fires and destroying the midday mass, which was being prepared. Frank Perry, mess-room steward, and George Wolf, the cook, were in the galley when the water poured in on them, submerging them to their necks and setting everything afloat. Wolf was jammed up against the galley stove by the inrush and scalded by the steam as the fires were extinguished.

were extinguished. Stefan Delini, a steward, was crushed Stefan Delini, a steward, was crushed against a cabin window, bruised about the head and body, and the arteries of his right wrist severed. It may become necessary to amputate his hand. Harry Walker, another steward, was also cut by glass in the same manner. Lettie Blinkenberg, the stewardess, was thrown completely across the cabin and severely hruised. Chief Steward Stienbach was battered up against a door. Hans Wirth, a steward, preparing the officers' mess, was hurled over the table. During the sixty hours which the storm continued Capt, Gech remained continuously on the bridge and every man of the crew

Weather.

Unsettled weather tonight, possibly rain; tomorrow partly,

cloudy and warmer.